T. H. Hatch Produced His Discharge Papers to Convince Warden Beemer.

IS NOW SUIING AL FOR FIFTY DOLLARS

Amazing Sequel to an Anti-Election Argument Being Developed in a Justice Court Trial—Lincoln to Have Telephonic Competition.

LINCOLN, April 17.—(Special.)—Warden Beemer of the penitentiary has been made defendant in an amusing suit in Justice Spencer's court. T. H. Hatch says that on the 8th instant the defendant entered into the following agreement in writing: I will give T. H. Hatch $50 if he will appear in court and discharge his duties for five months in the volunteer service in the late war and was honorably discharged.

Hatch avers that at great cost to himself he produced the discharge from the volunteer service, showing that he had served the time mentioned and was honorably discharged, but that Beemer had paid him the $50, and refused to do so. Outside of what is shown in the papers filed there is nothing to indicate the cause of this suit, except the knowledge that Beemer is a democrat and Beemer filed as warm a republican, and that the alleged agreement was made along election time.

Justice Spencer is engaged in the trial of a case where A. E. Moeller sued Tom Majors for $100 commission for engineering the deal whereby Majors is said to have secured a grocery store in Lincoln for the late American farm. The details of this transaction were fully developed during the campaign of last fall.

The supreme court has handed down a decision in the case of Lyndon A. George, the College View man, convicted in this county of taking advantage of Annelia Barth, a half-breed, and the temporary inmate of the Home for the Friendless. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the court sentenced him to a term of one year in the penitentiary.

One of the talked-of presidential candidates of the silver men, ex-Congressman Joseph Sibley, who has been in Lincoln for some time, has been in jail most of the time for the past two years. He was arrested on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the city of Lincoln of $100,000 in the purchase of a tract of land.

There is some prospect that Lincoln may have a new telephone service to compete with the present Bell monopoly. The plan will estimate the cost of a new system, and a newly-elected council. An ordinance has been introduced in the council granting to George D. Shelby a franchise for the establishment and maintenance of a local exchange of the Harrison telephone system. The ordinance grants Shelby, or his assigns, a right of way through the streets, alleys and public places of the city for the purpose of installing the same. Shelby agrees to furnish free of cost to each subscriber a number of telephones within the limits of the exchange is $3 per month, but when a person has a telephone in his place of business or office, and desires to have a second or third telephone, the charge for the latter shall not exceed $2 per month. In addition to the free telephones furnished the city, Shelby shall pay an occupancy tax of $100 per year, and file a good and sufficient bond of $15,000 with the city clerk.

The fifth annual commencement of the Medical department of the University of Nebraska occurred tonight at the Central Church of Christ. The doctorate address was delivered by Dr. B. J. A light rain fell Tuesday night, not heavy enough to wet the soil to any extent, and enough to give increased vigor to the growth of the prairie pastures, which are now furnishing good forage for stock, and the last heavy rains insure a good growth this spring.

LOSERS AT ELKHORN ARE GRITTY.

People Whose Property Was Destroyed by ELKHORN, Neb., April 17.—(Special.)—Lower Main street presents a desolate scene. Where a few days ago stood the major portion of the business houses of the city, today is a mass of burned and charred timbers and crumbling foundation walls.

Now the losers by the fire are casting about for another foothold and hardly know which way to turn or what to do. With one or two exceptions the parties burned out are not comparatively speaking paupers by the calamity. They all have sufficient means, however, to meet the demands of immediate wants and are being sheltered temporarily by kind and sympathetic friends.

Harzenmaker Morrison has moved his family in the room above stairs in the post-office building for the time being and has opened a shop with the remnants of his stock in a warehouse adjoining H. Krennmaier's store.

Sylvanus has moved the saved portion of his grocery stock into a building on Pacific street, and has opened a store on Main street, having built a store room on Main street, having built the lot he formerly occupied.

O'Brien, the confectioner and barber, has opened a shop in a 10x12 room on upper Main street.

F. J. Gibbons lost his entire outfit of blacksmithing and woodworking tools, together with his stock of goods and household goods and all of his back accounts. He doesn't know what he can or will do.

Henry Rasmus' property was insured for $100,000, but that amount will put him on his feet again.

Asks from his cottage, which was burned to the ground, Charles Chase lost most of his household goods and wearing apparel. He is in poor circumstances, the loss is a severe blow to him. He found shelter under a neighbor's roof.

Wm. J. Miller, milliner, and Duffel Kuehl, proprietor of the Commercial hotel, were virtually burned out of house and home. They are waiting for something to turn up.

CEDAR'S WATERS ARE STORED

Immense Dam Constructed at Ericson, Forming a Fine Lake.

PRACTICAL TEST OF IRRIGATION

Two Hundred Acres of the Area of the Land Covered by the Artificial Lake—Small Army of Men Employed.

ERICSON, Neb., April 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The mammoth dam at this place closed the waters of the Cedar Monday. For three days and two nights a small army of men with teams have had their hands full in stopping the waters of the stream and now the Cedar valley is adorned by one of the finest lakes in the state, covering some 200 acres. The entire neighborhood seemed to gather to assist in the exciting scene. Unnumbered thousands of fish were left below the dam without sufficient water, and are being caught by cast leads. Ducks and geese are already gathering on the lake and the crack of the sportsman's rifle is heard. The Cedar valley under irrigation, with its fine lake, promises to be most fruitful, and its people are already forgetting to talk of drought.

During the most dangerous period a horse fell some ten feet upon O. L. Herr, superintendent of construction, and was crushed into the mud and water with the animal upon him, head and shoulders submerged.

Captain Patrick H. Barry, recently appointed to the office of secretary of the office today. The question of Captain Barry's eligibility to the office, he having been a member of the bar, is being argued by the fact that he resigned his seat in that body prior to receiving his appointment.

A. J. Scott, recently appointed steward of the Asylum for Insane, is being similarly situated, he having also resigned before appointment.

The aged mother of the department, who is in the custody of the State Relief commission is seriously ill at the residence of her son.

The matter of the building of the new law, house roll 697, providing for negotiation with Contractor Drogan, the government feels that some of the bills should be taken by the board in this direction prior to his selecting a warden for the institution. No less than nine candidates for the place, more or less prominent in the city, are independent there are J. V. Wolfe, C. W. Hoxie, J. A. Sheridan, W. P. Porter, Jerome Whittman and James Jones.

Of the Democrats, J. C. Dahlman, James O'Shea and George W. Lehigh comprise the list. Should the lot fall to a democrat Dahlman will doubtless be the man, if to a republican, the chances of Hoxie are considered quite favorable.

There will be a preliminary meeting of the cycle dealers and delegates from the district clubs in the city, at the Young Men's Christian association building, Thursday evening, April 18, at 8 o'clock. COMMENT A LAUREL DE GALLIE'S WIN.

Richard Croker and His Jockey Completed the London Press.

LONDON, April 17.—The Wall Gazette comments upon the victory of Richard Croker's Eaux-de-Galle, formerly Ulysses, in the race for the Crawford plate at Newmarket yesterday.

"Eux-de-Galle and Estar are sprinters capable of testing any ordinary horse and the decisive victory hints that the visitors are likely to win many races. In training, feeding and riding the American act contrary to all Newmarket rules, but hostile criticism will now have to be given to the horseman who he knew his business thoroughly. When Eux-de-Galle swerved a bit under the whip the jockey coolly steadied his horse and he came on again with a winning rush that established his reputation as a horseman of great ability."

The Globe also comments upon the race, remarking: "Our American cousins should be well satisfied with the result of the race for the Crawford plate. The jockey was in handsome style. Simms is a smart specimen of American jockey. Our people, however, are somewhat disappointed in the result, as they expected to see a horse of the quality of the world of equitation opposed to a horse of the quality of the world of equitation."

SKETCHES OF MOVING SCENES

The Lights and Shades of House Hunting in Chicago.

FEATURES OF LANDLORD INQUIRY

Infant Incumbents Tossed with Fags and Cats—Fighting Signs of the Times—Omaha Largely in Evidence.

CHICAGO, April 17.—(Correspondence of The Bee.)—To one not accustomed to the life of a great city Chicago at this season presents a very interesting study. These are the days when the move men's souls and not only their souls but their lures and penates and handboxes and pianos and looking glasses and the streets in the residence portions of the city are lined with furniture women and desperate looking men. Social life halts and the city schools are given their spring vacation on the last week of April in deference to the custom of annual migration.

These moving days are but the culmination of the period known as house hunting days. Fox hunting, bear hunting and buffalo hunting may be very exciting, but for variety of incident and the intensity of the emotions aroused they are far and away behind house hunting.

If you are a person of experience you will hire some one of peculiarly obnoxious manners to look you up. You will not only see but you will hear about the facts relating to your private affairs so that you will not hesitate when you answer, which is regarded as the sign of approaching insanity.
